DEATH DUE TO ACCIDENTAL DROWNING

Body of Miss Evelyn E. Packard Found in River at West Bridgewater.

(Special to The Herald)
West Bridgewater, Mass., Aug. 5.—The body of Miss Evelyn E. Packard, the 22-year old daughter of a prosperous Brockton family who disappeared while on a canoe trip along the Town river here Wednesday, was found at 6.45 a. m. today caught against the bottom of a wire netting spread by the police across the river near Pine Hill bridge. How the girl came to meet death in the river is yet to be explained officially. Probation Officer Kirkby of Brockton, a friend of the Packard family, who went out to view the body with Medical Examiner Paine, telephoned that death was caused by accidental drowning but the Medical Examiner's report has not been made yet.

The navy yard now has nearly 1500 employees.

NEW YORK STREET CAR STRIKE NOW IN FULL SWING

Nearly 6000 Men Involved--Railroad Company Will Import Strike Breakers to Operate Their Cars

(Special to The Herald)
New York, Aug. 5.—The strike of street car employees which was called by the union leaders last night is in full swing today on many lines. Traffic on several lines is seriously crippled. The few cars running on the affected lines are under heavy guard. At 6 a. m. today the strike spread to the Second avenue line, the employees of which had been expected to remain loyal to the company. With their walkout the total of the men on strike was increased to 5,750. Despite the police preparations that had been made when the great strike was threatening disorder marked the early hours of the struggle. This was soon controlled, however, except for occasional outbreaks that occurred at points distant from the places where the police were concentrated.

Frank Hadley, vice president and general manager of the New York Railway Co., announced today that the lines would continue to operate. Strike breakers will arrive Monday from Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island and go to work at once. They will be housed by the company and protection will be given by the police. The busses have been equipped with cots and large supplies of food have been stored there.

(Special to The Herald)
Stockholm, Aug. 5.—A great fleet of ten Zeppelins have attacked the great fortress of Sveaborg in Finland, according to information received by the newspaper Tidningen today. The fortress defends Helsingfors, the capital of Finland, and is a base of Russian warships defending Petrograd.

MAY PROCEED AGAINST POLICE

While there is no confirmation from the attorneys representing Dr. Cowles it is intimated that they are arranging to institute proceedings against Chief of Police Hurley and Officer Condon for their part in the serving of the warrant and the removal of Miss Sarah J. Farmer from the Cowles sanitarium on the night of August 3.
Attorneys Scammon and Hughes have been busy for two days in this city on the case and the new developments are expected to break this afternoon or Monday.

MORLEY'S VICTORY PLACES TEAM IN LEAD ALONE

Y. M. C. A. Lost to M. B. C. on Errors After Having Game Practically on Ice--Postponed Games Start on Monday

The last scheduled game of the season played last evening, resulted in a 4 to 2 victory for the Morley Boston Company over the Y. M. C. A. This win putting the Morley team in the lead by a half game over the champions. The game was in the hands of the Y. M. C. A. until the opening of the last inning when three bad errors made the three runs possible. Jordan had pitched fine ball throughout the game and Moran also pitched almost baseball, holding the Y. M. C. A. batters to one run hit; that made by Ted Butler in the fourth inning, and it went for three bases.

The game was one of the most interesting of the week and was fast from start to finish. Two fast double plays kept the Morley from scoring earlier in the game when a hit meant a run. The first came in the first inning, made by Currier, Thompson and Marden; and the second was made in the fourth by Marden and Thomas.

The postponed and tie games, of which there are fourteen, will begin on Monday evening and the season will be concluded, maybe, on Thursday, Aug. 24.

The Game

4th Inning--Thompson walked, and stole as Thompson fanned. Baldwin singled left, Gorman missing the ball, allowing Pilgrim to score. HEAT ON BORDER BREEDS "WHOPPER" STORIES

(By L. V. B. Rucker, International News Service Correspondent.)

San Antonio, August.—Psychologists agree—that is, some have agreed as well as two or more psychologists can agree, ever have agreed, or ever will agree—that veracity depends on climate.

Heat they say breeds mendacity, cold makes for truthfulness.

So that as it may, the present day Mexican "situation" goes far to bear out the theory. Down here along the border and further southward, in Mexico it is hot, beastly hot. It has been proven too often to need further proof, that the average Mexican is a born liar. More to the point, perhaps no more outlandish fakes and false rumors ever were fostered upon a patient and long suffering public than the yarns now emanating from the "war correspondents" along the border.

Or one recent story about the taking of Torreon by Francisco Villa, who has not even reached that metropolis of Chihuahua. Major General

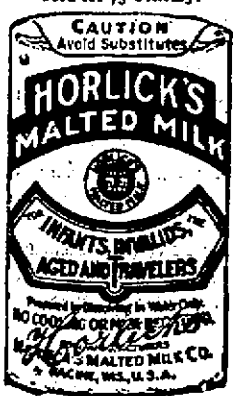

Frederick Funston, commander of the Southern Department, U. S. Army, said:

"That must surely be from that justly celebrated lie factory, El Paso, which to my certain knowledge has Shanghai and the Mole Saint Nicholas backed clear off the boards."

Whatever may be the justification for the psychologists' theory that the heat breeds "whoppers" while cold tends to elicit truth, it is a fact that in the present Mexican embroglio there have been more stories published one day from apparent authentic sources and denied the next, than in any other epoch of American history. Mexico City time after time has had the American punitive expedition withdrawing immediately. Parra had the Germans sinking the U. S. battleship Nebraska in Vera Cruz harbor. Another Mexican news source announced with great solemnity that the Negroes of Texas had revolted, captured Washington and driven the President and Mrs. Wilson into Canada.

of Duluth, wealthy patron of the Duluth Boat Club. This trophy will be awarded to the club scoring the greatest number of points. The scoring will be the same as that used in scoring for the Sir Thomas Lipton trophy in yachting. This system provides that the winner in each event be awarded a number of points equal to the number of contestants. The second contestant is awarded the less point and so on. Thus the winner of an event in which five contestants competed would be awarded five points, second, four points; third, three points; fourth, two points and last, 1 point. The Duluth Boat Club and the Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia are entered in every event.

New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston and Washington will be well represented. Five Philadelphia boat clubs are sending crews.

LOBSTER REARING PLANT FOR NEW ENGLAND COAST

(From Department of Commerce, Washington.)

The Sundry Civil Appropriation Act approved July 1, appropriates $5,000 for the construction and equipment of a lobster-rearing plant for the New England Coast, and the Bureau of Fisheries is now making investigations to determine the best available location.

The Bureau hatched 128,700,000 lobsters in Maine and Massachusetts during the year ended June 30, but owing to the high price of the hatcheries it was ing to the character of the facilities necessary to plant them almost immediately after they had issued from the egg. At this stage, they swim near the surface of the sea and are particularly subject to destruction by fishes, but the new plant will make possible the rearing of a considerable number of them to a stage at which they acquire the habit of seeking safety among the rocks and in the cranial of the sea bottom. It is especially designed to prevent the practice of cannibalism which produces a situation similar to that of the Kilkenny cats when large numbers of the little lobsterlings are confined in a small space, and which defeats attempts to rear them in the existing plants of the Bureau. It is expected that the plant will be ready to take care of part of the brood of 1917.

PRIVATE SCHILLER ADDS AMERICAN SONGS TO MUSICAL REPERTOIRE.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 5.—Ernest Schiller, the German pirate who singled handed seized a ship off New Jersey coast, and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Atlanta Federal Prison, is adding to his musical repertoire by learning American folk songs. He plays a clarinet in the prison orchestra. "Swanee River," "Old Kentucky Home," "Old Black Joe," and "Tenting Tonight," are some of the songs he has mastered but his favorite is "Home, Sweet Home." Since his recent daring attempt to escape, Schiller has changed from a bright spirit to a morose, saddened prisoner.

TO IMPORTANT DUTIES.

The Portsmouth Fire department is fast completing its plans for the entertainment of the visiting firemen who will attend the annual state firemen's convention to be held in this city Sept. 27 and 28. At a meeting of the committee on arrangements held last evening at the central fire station, Chief William F. Woods presiding, several important sub-committees were appointed, and special duties imposed on them.

Much interest is being shown throughout the state and it is expected by the members of the local department that fully 1000 firemen will attend the convention this year. As the citizens assisted materially last year in making the convention a success it is believed by the members of the department that fully as much will be done this year.

The committees appointed by Chief Woods at last evening's meeting were: Bake and Dinner—Chairman George Cogan; Thomas A. Moran, Wm. Wallace, N. F. Amee, James Scott.

Music—Chairman George Miles; Geo. Chandler, W. P. Gray, Morris Leary, Robert Palfrey, Harry Critchley.

Entertainment—Chairman Josiah M. Varrell, P. D. Hersey, D. Scott, G. O. Lane, H. E. Wallace.

Much interest is shown and over 1000 visiting firemen are expected to attend. It is hoped that all our citizens will assist our firemen in every way possible to entertain their guests.

RAILROAD WAGES

Shall they be determined by Industrial Warfare or Federal Inquiry?

To the American Public:

Do you believe in arbitration or industrial warfare?

The train employees on all the railroads have voted whether they will give their leaders authority to tie up the commerce of the country to enforce their demands for a 100 million dollar wage increase.

The railroads are in the public service—your service. This army of employees is in the public service—your service.

You pay for rail transportation 3 billion dollars a year; and 44 cents out of every dollar from you goes to the employees.

On all the Eastern Railroads in 1915, seventy-five per cent of the train employees earned these wages (lowest, highest, and average of all) as shown by the payrolls—

	Passenger		Freight		Yard
	Range	Average	Range	Average	Range	Average
Engineers	$1641 3224	$1931	$1585 2992	$1783	$1303 2178	$1543
Conductors	1553 3004	1831	1552 2901	1642	1145 1991	1315
Firemen	951 1704	1128	933 1762	1109	752 1633	935
Brakemen	957 1707	1141	862 1521	973	834 1635	1085

The average yearly wage payments to all Eastern train employees (including those who worked only part of the year) as shown by the 1915 payrolls were—

Firemen	1033	903	844

A 100 million dollar wage increase for men in freight and yard service (less than one-fifth of all employees) is equal to a 5 per cent advance in all freight rates.

The managers of the railroads, as trustees for the public, have no right to place this burden on the cost of transportation to you without a clear mandate from a public tribunal speaking for you.

The railroads have proposed the settlement of this controversy either under the existing national arbitration law, or by reference to the Interstate Commerce Commission. This offer has been refused by the employees' representatives.

Shall a nation-wide strike or an investigation under the Government determine this issue?

Field and Garden Looting.

A farmer living in a populous region, "close to the best markets," writes to his newspaper commending articles it has published on farming and gardening, which he pronounces of a character to be very helpful to those who till the soil for a living.

But after completing this part of his letter he goes on to complain of the depredations of thieves, mostly children from the neighboring city and villages, who raid his fruit trees and fields and lug off what in the aggregate amounts to substantial value, resulting in extreme aggravation and a perceptible reduction of his profits. And he states that he is by no means a solitary victim. His neighbors suffer in the same way. He says that many of the thieves are too young to be dealt with by the courts, at least the victims of their raiding dislike to invoke the law in the case of such youthful offenders in spite of the fact that the trouble in many cases is really serious. The writer feels that there is something wrong in the training of these children and that there is a sad lack of training in morals on the part of churches, schools and parents.

But while this complainant confines his attention to youthful depredators it is a well known fact that such work as he complains of is not confined to children. In the neighborhood of most cities and large towns farmers and gardeners are much troubled by parties of adults who do not hesitate to dump quantities of fruits and vegetables into automobiles or wagons and drive off as unconcerned as if the premises and products were their own property.

This is an exasperating condition and one that tends to reduce the profits of farming and gardening in the localities where it obtains, but after all is said and done, the remedy must be found in the courts if anywhere. The teaching of old-fashioned morality, which this writer advocates, is theoretically correct, but it is to be feared it will never do the business.

The heavy hand of the law must be brought to bear. There are ways of dealing with the offenses of children too young to be personally amenable to the law, and the fact is that most of this thieving is done by children not so young, as well as by persons old enough to be fully aware of the wrongfulness of their acts. One trouble is that they regard the farmer as a "hayseed" whom they have a right to loot at will. It is not possible to catch them in every case, but when one is caught the law should be relentlessly applied. A few lessons of this sort would prove highly efficacious in teaching "old-fashioned morality."

The Mexican Mess.

About the most amusing thing that President Wilson has "pulled" on the public is the scheme to arbitrate the differences with Mexico. Think of it! Arbitrate our difference with whom? Ourselves of course. Wilson ordered Pershing into Mexico to capture Villa because he had killed our soldiers and had attacked them on American soil. Remember, Villa is the man that Mr. Wilson backed as the Mexican leader and the one individual to restore order and that he ordered ammunition, guns, etc., to be furnished him to carry out his desire. Later Mr. Wilson entered into agreements with Carranza and later he declared war on him and now he has appointed a commission to settle with—whom? Is there a man, woman or child in this country who isn't sick of Wilson and his Mexican policy?

A Provincetown, Mass., woman declares she will eat no fish while the city people are there bathing in the waters, yet she finds the fish very acceptable at other times in spite of the fact that the town's sewage flows directly into the water from which the fish come. The condition is not ideal for the vacationists, but they take their chances with the sewage, which is more than the old woman will do with the fish during the period of "imported" contamination.

The Aero Club of America has appointed delegates for the purpose of co-operating with the other countries of the Western Hemisphere in the further development of aeronautics. Without doubt the foreign war is partly responsible for this movement, but the navigation of the air is something that has come to stay, consequently its study and development is strictly in order at all times and everywhere.

In most things political the leaders are able to tell the people many things, but it still remains for the people to inform a man that he has been nominated for president of the United States. Perhaps this is the reason why they make so much fuss about it.

Great Britain must now give attention to a few American notes. Its trade blacklisting and tampering with the mails are by no means acceptable to the people of this country.

MR. HUGHES IS ENDORSED BY PROGRESSIVES

Raymond Robins Says He Gladly Enlists Under the Leadership of Charles E. Hughes.

New York, Aug. 5.—Raymond Robins, chairman of the Progressive National Convention in a statement issued to the Progressives of the country today endorses the candidacy of Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee. After a lengthy review of what had been accomplished by the Progressives, Mr. Robins says:

"Comprehending our national necessities how can a Progressive hesitate long to choose between the party of sectionalism? Should not wise and sincere Progressives go on instead to the Republican primaries, and fighting shoulder to shoulder with progressive Republicans, help add to the help in our common struggle for social and industrial justice in city, state and nation? If this is generally done the common bonds of our fellowship for the past four years will not be broken but rather augmented, and we can continue to work together and bring back a chastened Republican party to its ancient faith in human rights and national integrity which alone, its triumph under Lincoln's leadership the supreme achievement of the Democratic spirit in the history of mankind.

"The present leader of the Republican party won his reputation as the progressive Republican governor of New York. He there proved himself completely independent of all boss control and demonstrated that he will take advice from many but dictation from none. His words have been made good by deeds. His leadership is the fruit of the Progressive movement in American politics. It is a nomination was not two years old when the most resourceful general of the 'old guard' was dropped overhead into political oblivion. The forced retirement of William Hughes, Jr., was the 'high sign' to all who wish to know and understand that the control of the Republican party had passed forever from the 'old guard' of 1912. Mr. Hughes' recognition of the Progressives in the appointment of his campaign committee is a guarantee of the good faith in which he appeals for Progressive support.

"This estimate of the progressive character of the Republican nominee does not rest upon the testimony alone of his record and associates. From a statement over the signature of one of the ablest of the Progressive leaders in this nation, I quote as follows:

"The nomination of Mr. Hughes will be acceptable to the great body of progressive Republicans in this country. He was not the choice of the reactionary element which formed the platform and otherwise controlled the convention. He is able, independent, fearless, and possessed of high public spirit. There is no question of his personal and political integrity, he will go as far as his convictions carry him and no other influence can stop him."

ROBERT M. HA POLLETTIE
"We Progressives stand at the crossroads. American social, industrial and political life has broken down under the old individualistic control. A new nation-wide and conscience-developing social unity, industrial standardization, efficient political honesty; from a self-controlled democracy—this is the goal of our generation in American life. I believe in the character and courage of the nominee of the Republican party. He is the most conspicuous example in our history of the possibilities that American politics may hold for stresses in able and unselfish public service. For myself I stand only with the majority of the Progressives of the nation under the leadership of Charles Evans Hughes."

The Observer

The secrets of lobstering along the New England coast is causing much anxiety to those who have been engaged in the lobster fishing business for many years. So scarce are lobsters this year that several fishermen who have been engaged in this industry for years have taken up their traps and given up the business on the ground that there was not a living in it. In conversation with a well known lobster fisherman who has followed it for an occupation for years, he stated that a different kind of legislation was needed if the lobsters were to be protected, as the short lobster clause so called did not afford the protection that was expected. Said he, "What we need is a closed season on lobsters from November to the last of May. This would give the lobsters a chance to breed and multiply and this would be the best protection for not only the fishermen but all who love the delicious 'shell fish.' This suggestion coming from one who has followed lobster fishing for so many years is well worthy of consideration."

CURRENT OPINION

Our greatness in America is not in our resources or in military strength alone, but in our belief that in the future our citizens will be able to govern themselves.

We have got to have men and women who will think, men and women of trained minds, and so we must look naturally to the schools and colleges and teachers.

Since the war started we have learned that America has no solid mind on fundamentals. We have no intelligent foreign policy, no intelligent domestic policy, no comprehensive thinking. We cannot get a national will through dressing every man in khaki, but we will get it through training of the minds of the nation.

Democracy is to be once more on trial, and in America in the future the men who keep out of politics because they feel politics is too dirty for them will be traitors to the state.—By Mr. Albert Parker Pitch, Andover, Mass.

Not has not boiled to any great extent in this city and the fillings for office, especially on the part of the Democrats have been very few. In wards one and two the Republican candidates for representatives were among the early ones to the their intentions. The only Democrat so far to file for representation in ward two is Charles Cogswell Smith, and in ward one Lewis Soule. In ward three, William J. Casey has filed and as the ward is strongly Democratic will no doubt get the nomination and be elected. Just who Casey's running mate will be is not yet settled, although ex-Mayor D. W. Hodge and John Leary have been prominently mentioned. In ward four Edward S. Down has filed as the Republican candidate and Benjamin F. Mudge as the Democratic candidate. In ward four the only person to file his intentions so far is John T. Sheehan, who is registered as the Democratic candidate for representative. Ex-Congressman John Smart is prominently mentioned as the Republican candidate. So far there has been very few filings by the candidates for ward offices.

One little girl who was on the job bright and early Saturday morning in the interest of the Portsmouth hospital got a pleasant surprise when she tagged an automobile party of eight on Market Square. The little girl replied anything you wish to give, whereupon she was handed eight crisp one dollar bills, one for each member of the party.

KEYES TOURS SULLIVAN CO.

Receives Hearty Assurances From the Voters of Every Town Visited.

Concord, Aug. 5.—After a satisfactory trip through some of the larger towns in Sullivan county yesterday, Hon. Henry W. Keyes who is touring New Hampshire in the interests of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor, arrived in this city last night for the purpose of attending to some matters of personal business before resuming his political canvass.

In point of number of towns visited yesterday's activity was the least active since Mr. Keyes started out last Monday, but he was warmly received everywhere he went, and by his own admission when he reached this city he had found nothing to worry him in any community where he stopped.

Part of the day was devoted to looking over the situation in Newport, where he made his first definite stop after leaving Keene and later Charlestown, one of the other settlements in the state, and Claremont, the largest town in population in New Hampshire received his attention.

In the lobby of the Newport house where the candidate established his headquarters during his stay of a brief 12 hours, he held an informal reception attended by practically all the principal Republican citizens of the town. He was assured by them that the whole of Newport and Sullivan county so far as the men on the ground have been able to ascertain is "all one way" so far as sentiment with regard as to who shall be the Republican gubernatorial nominee is concerned. That "one way" they did not hesitate to add is for Keyes.

It appears that Josephus W. Pillsbury of Londonderry, who is opposing Mr. Keyes for the nomination, and who is also going about the state in the interests of his candidacy, has not yet descended upon Sullivan county. At least no evidence of his having been there could be discovered yesterday. The apple raising campaign has made a canvass of Cheshire county, according to the men who have been seen there during the first of the week, and tangible evidence of his visit was found in the form of window cards in the various towns, but there were no cards bearing Pillsbury's picture visible anywhere in the more populous towns of Sullivan county.

WILL FIGHT REMOVAL OF MISS SARAH FARMER

Dr. Cowles and Attorneys Style Removal as "High-Handed Abduction" and it is Believed Legal Steps Will be Taken at Once

That Dr. Edward S. Cowles of Middle street, director of the Cowles Sanitarium, is planning a stiff legal fight to have Miss Sarah J. Farmer returned to New Hampshire, was made known last evening after he had been in conference with his attorneys and Miss Mary R. Sanford of New York, guardian of Miss Farmer in New Hampshire. Miss Sanford, former U. S. Senator William E. Chandler of Concord, Attorney George T. Hughes of Dover and another lawyer, were in consultation all afternoon and part of the evening, but little could be learned of the developments. Dr. Cowles stated last evening that Mr. Chandler would have an important statement to make sometime today.

Miss Sanford and Dr. Cowles term the removal of Miss Farmer from her care as a "high-handed abduction" but both Dr. Cowles and Miss Sanford refused to discuss the legal aspect of the case, saying that it was in the hands of his attorneys. He gave them permission to talk and the only one reached last evening expressed pleasure at his visit and assured the reporter that he had a very pleasant dinner while here. He also denied having discussed the Farmer case, although Dr. Cowles had already informed the reporter that that was his object in coming to the city.

Ex-Senator Chandler arrived in Portsmouth yesterday and immediately called at the residence of Dr. Cowles for the consultation. It is rumored the proceedings may take the form of an action for contempt of court as the writ of habeas corpus granted some months ago by Chief Justice Robert G. Pike of the Superior Court is now being considered by the New Hampshire Supreme Court as to its legality. It was Dr. Cowles' assertion that the state of Maine had jurisdiction over Miss Farmer and not the state of New Hampshire.

Wanted to Remain at Sanitarium

In an interview granted last evening Miss Sanford said that Miss Farmer wished to remain at the sanitarium of Dr. Cowles. She said: "I have been a friend of Miss Farmer for years and I was appointed her guardian in New Hampshire three years ago by Judge Hoyt of the Probate Court on the death of the late Edward Ginn of Boston, her former guardian. My only concern since I succeeded Mr. Ginn as the guardian of Miss Farmer has been to look after Miss Farmer's comfort and welfare and to raise the necessary money to take care of her. In the three years I have been her guardian I have received only $100. from her relatives or her so-called guardians in Maine who control her property. The remainder of the money used in her care I have secured by subscriptions from among her friends. I have kept Miss Farmer in the care of Dr. Cowles because she has requested me, again, and again, to allow her to remain under his care."

Miss Sanford refused to discuss the legal steps to be taken to bring Miss Farmer back to New Hampshire and had nothing to say about her removal beyond expressing her opinion that it was a high-handed abduction. She stated that she was not present at the sanitarium on Thursday night when she was removed and was ignorant of the removal until informed of it after it was all over.

Miss Farmer Happy Among Her Friends

Miss Farmer, after her arrival at her old home in Elliot, said that she was glad to get home. She spent all day Friday surrounded by her relatives and friends, many of which had not seen her for the five years she had been in the care of Dr. Cowles. Her guardian in Maine, George E. Hammon of Elliot, was instrumental in having the warrant sworn out against the doctor, which was served at a late hour on Thursday night by Chief Hurley and his officers.

Rome, Aug. 5.—Reports that Italy has broken off all relations with Germany were confirmed by official announcement made today. The government is taking over all concerns connected with German consuls and commercial treaty between Italy and Germany has been denounced. Business relations between the two countries has been prohibited.

THE THREE WAYS.

About two-thirds of humanity are trying to kill one another by all the means known to human ingenuity. The law of the Narrow Way that leads unto life is this: "Love thy neighbor as thyself." It requires but little sober thought to determine that such men are not traveling far in this way.

On the other hand we hate to think of our many friends thus more or less helplessly involved as on the Broad Way that leads to destruction. None would be likely to argue that both sides merit such a fate if either do. What then? This pertinent question will be treated by Dr. R. L. Robie, M. D., of Chicago in a free lecture at G. A. H. hall, Portsmouth, 2 p. m., Sunday, Aug. 6. All are welcome.

schoolhouse. It is the equal of many of the high priced winter shows and included in the cast are many well known and liked stars of the musical comedy realm. Jonnie Hovey and Jeanette Mozar are the leaders of the fun department and they are bound to leave hundreds of admirers in Portsmouth when they have concluded their three days' stay. The plot while airy, as a summer plot must be, concerns the adventures of a sea captain who, supposedly drowned ten years previously returns home to his wife followed by his new Hawaiian bride. He finds his first wife married to an undertaker named Bones and the fun begins. The song interpolations are gems and sung with more than the usual allotment of "punch."

Today is the last day of "The Wizard of Bone-Bone" which has pleased the town immensely. The big picture program has received much favorable comment as has the quality of the shows now being given at the Colonial in proportion to the price. Get the habit.

FRENCH FORCES ARE DRIVEN FROM FLEURY

Violent Fight is Raging in Verdun Region With Tide Turning in Favor of the German Offensive

London, Aug. 4.—Their Verdun campaign impeded by French successes in the east of the fortress city, the Germans struck back with a most powerful counter blow on the Fleury-Thiaumont front last night and early today. The German war office this afternoon announced the recapture of the village of Fleury by the crown prince's army in fighting early this morning. It also announced the capture of Thiaumont at the same time.

The French war office issued a statement at noon admitting that the Germans had penetrated the southern portion of Fleury in a heavy attack with counter formations. The French are fighting to the outskirts of the town, it is reported, and holding the station east of Fleury. At one stage of the fighting the French captured the village of Thiaumont, southwest of Fleury, but subsequently it was driven out by German artillery.

On the Somme front, where the allies are conducting their great offensive, the French are making gains west of Pozieres, were reported to the British war office. The British war office also reported the capture of the village of Radda-Mirashuk, 20 miles in the center of Kovol.

At Verdun again is in the center of the war stage. The recapture of Fleury, which had been held by the Germans for more than a month, caused great elation in France. It is the first fruit of the French slow and methodical offensive begun three days ago and seems in the opinion of French military observers, to mark an epoch in the six months' battle for the great fortress on the Meuse.

Initiative Going to the French

The Germans appear to be less and less capable of operating on their old, overwhelming scale, and the initiative, military men here think, is about to pass to the French for good.

While the German artillery continues to be as powerful and as well supplied as ever, the Germans no longer are able to gather the masses of troops necessary to reap the benefit of artillery preparation.

It is 20 days since the Germans made their last big attack on the right bank of the Meuse, by which they obtained small results at a heavy cost. On this left bank of the Meuse nothing beyond local actions have been attempted by the invaders for a week.

French bomb throwers, for a fortnight past, in anticipation of the present offensive, had been creeping forward by the Vignes ravine, west of Froide Terre, with the object of getting near Thiaumont by working around hill number 355.

The bombers first reached the Fleury road. They then separated into two parties, one going to the eastward toward Thiaumont and the second pushing northward toward Vachereauville and Peppin Hill.

Last week the first party stormed a redoubt west of Thiaumont and after a short fight went beyond that position. The second party reached the little wood of Vachereauville.

Paris, Aug. 4.—Attacking simultaneously from the northwest and from the southeast, French troops yesterday stormed the village of Fleury, three miles north of Verdun, and captured several hundred Germans. In the evening, however, the Germans launched a furious counter attack and after several violent attempts succeeded in getting a footing in the southern part of the village. The French today continue to hold the northern section of the place, and heavy fighting still is in progress.

At one period of the fighting the French entered Thiaumont earthworks but withdrew, owing to the intensity of the German bombardment, taking 50 prisoners.

Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 12 cents a week.

If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging-down sensation, falling or displacement of pelvic organs, causing kidney and bladder weakness or contraction, and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depression, apathy, melancholy, desire to cry, creeping feeling along the spine, palpitation, or something evil about to happen, or a general feeling that life is not worth living.

INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT

I learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy again, you can pass the good word to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. GIRL OF TEN YEARS GETS $4,000 A YEAR TO LIVE ON

New York, Aug. 1.—Although Artemise B. Ottman is only ten years old and an invalid, she is richer than her father, William Ottman, who is vice-president of a lithographing company with a salary of $5,000 a year and a private fortune of $100,000.

The little sick girl owns $235,000 in gilt-edged securities inherited from her mother, whose name was the same as her own, and from her maternal grandfather, and the income from her property is about $10,000 a year.

"These interesting facts concerning one of Gotham's 'poor little rich girls' came out through the application of Artemise's father, made to Surrogate Robert Ludlow Fowler for permission to devote $5,000 a year of the child's income to her support. The Surrogate allowed $4,000.

The little girl's father told the Surrogate that he saw no reason why she should not support herself out of her private fortune. Of late years, said Mr. Ottman, he had been paying out $1,000 a year for medical attention to little Artemise, $1,200 a year for her tuition in a private school, about $1,000 a year for her clothes, and he estimates that $2,400 a year would be a conservative estimate of the cost of her board.

"The child's relatives are persons of wealth and social standing," said Ottman, "and it is necessary that Artemise be educated, clothed and maintained accordingly."

Artemise's father said that during 1915 he lived with her and her half-brother at the Hotel Gotham and that the little sick girl's board and room cost $200 a month. Just now they are living at Montclair, N. J., and he says the little girl's share of the living expenses is $200 a month.

MANY BERLIN TRADESMEN ARE PUNISHED

Berlin, Aug. 1.—The police of the German capital are keeping up a relentless prosecution of the butchers, bakers, grocers and other tradesmen who violate the food regulations by charging their customers more than the maximum prices permitted by the law.

It has been decided to publish weekly lists of these offenders in order that the public may be warned of their practices. The first one of these lists contains the names of more than 150 storekeepers who have been convicted of petty usury and sentenced to fines and short terms of imprisonment. The fines imposed upon the culprits range from $2.50 to $125 and the prison terms from one day to four weeks. A butcher was fined $75, because he tried to make an extra profit of 1 1/2 cents on a pound of sausages, and a grocer who demanded two cents more than the legal maximum price for ten pounds of potatoes had to go behind the bars for ten days.

CATHEDRAL BELLS USED TO MANUFACTURE SHELLS

Vienna, Aug. 1.—The famous bells of the Cathedral of Salzburg are no longer in existence. Like those of many other churches they have become victims of the war. Recently they were smashed up in the factory by a crew of workmen. The pieces have been sent to different munition factories where they will be used for the manufacture of shells.

The bells were more than three centuries old and the largest one weighed more than three tons.

CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOL IN RUSSIA GROWS AGAIN

Petrograd, Aug. 5.—The "Dnestr Gazette" complains that the consumption of alcohol is again increasing alarmingly throughout Russia, in spite of the restrictive measures taken by the government. To prove its assertion the paper publishes statistics obtained from the ministry of the interior which show that during the first five months of the present year, 7,669,706 gallons of alcohol were sold, against 1,356,281 gallons in the corresponding period of the last year.

The number of illicit distilleries, according to information given by the Minister of Finance, is seven times larger than a year ago. From January to May 31 over 4,000 persons were arrested for secretly manufacturing and selling alcohol.

PLANNED REIGN OF TERROR IN SAN FRANCISCO

PROSECUTOR MAKES PUBLIC THE LETTER OF DYNAMITE SUSPECT.

San Francisco, Aug. 4.—That Thomas J. Mooney, one of the men indicted for murder in connection with the preparedness parade bomb explosion on July 22, planned to inaugurate a reign of terror in San Francisco by importing "direct action Reds" from other cities, was the declaration of District Attorney C. M. Pickett in making public today some of the correspondence discovered by the police in Mooney's desk.

Mooney kept carbon copies of his letters. One addressed to an executive officer named Acker, of the International organization of the Industrial Workers of the World, Chicago, said: "I want to get in touch with 15 or 20 direct action Reds—good, vigorous Reds."

A letter to William Haywood, national secretary of the I. W. W., asked for "hot-blooded men" to come to San Francisco to join various unions and ferment trouble to start mutinies against the heads of the unions they joined and "in every way possible to cause dissension."

"Let me pull my kind of stuff," this letter continued, "stuff that's never been attempted in San Francisco before, and I'll make labor in San Francisco recognize me as its leader."

PEOPLES' OPINION

Give Us the Light Where Needed.
Editor—Will some one kindly explain something about the city lighting system. Why are the light of the White Way allowed to burn after daylight until 7 o'clock. Some of that light could be used at the proper time. Why not put a little of it on the lights in other parts of the city where the candle power has been cut down? Give us the light when and where it is needed.

Car With Three Men Plunges Down Bank on Islington Street

An automobile containing Ralph Hett, Henry H. Moran and an ex-navy man named Wren, was wrecked late Friday night on Islington street west of the Morley Button shop. The machine was coming along at a good clip and met a wagon coming in the opposite direction. In attempting to pass the wagon the driver lost control of the car and the machine went down the bank. The three men were thrown quite a distance and Wren and Moran were quite badly injured, although Moran was the only one removed to the hospital. He was cut and bruised on the head and face and also sustained injuries to his back. The car was completely wrecked.

SANDFORD NOW SEEKS DIVORCE

Culmination of Family Troubles Which Have Been in Public Eye for Some Time Past.

John Sandford of State street whose family troubles have been aired of late in the municipal court, has instituted proceedings for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Alice B. Sandford, alleging extreme cruelty and conduct injurious to health. He also asks for the custody of their son, Thomas, and petitions for a reconveyance of the real estate which is held in her name, in trust for the son. This property is valued at approximately $20,000. He also filed a petition in which he seeks an injunction restraining her from interfering with the real estate and from collecting the rents derived from the same, and also enjoining her sister, Mrs. Bennett from committing any acts of violence against him.

THE HERALD HEARS

That Deer street is a mess with dirt.
That the broom should be applied there at least once a week.
That the condition there certainly does not appeal to strangers on the way to the Shoola steamer.
That a Christian Shore resident has a new method of feeding a horse and goes to considerable trouble to get the oats to the animal.
That he has not yet found courage to enter the stall in the proper way and drops down through to the manger when he wants to deliver the oats or take the horse out.
That every time he starts the feeding method the broncho starts something.
That the last time, he broke out and did a sprint up the road.
That the August allowance for work at the navy yard will just about do the work with no big pay days for the mechanics.
That there will be no star chamber session on the water rate hearing at the next meeting of the council.
That the excise board should fill that third place of liquor inspector.
That the job at one time, called for four men.
That two have been doing the work for quite a while.
That a lot of the soldier boys at the border would like to put the ban on handouts.
That Quebec autos have been numerous about this city all summer.
That there is talk of enlarging one of the big garages in this city.
That the Deutschland is now playing hide-and-seek on the broad Atlantic.

I WONDER

If the Christian Shore district will ever see a police officer at night again?

Why so many people would rather report their troubles to a newspaper than to the police?

If the city council will get any more satisfaction than other citizens when they asked the reason for the increase in water rates?

Why the new street lights that have been lately installed in several places are not hung on longer arms in the highway?

If the P. B. Co. tug of war team is waiting for that Penacook team to get a record?

When the Middle street trolley will be eliminated from the official automobile book?
